Day 2: Full-Day Historical East

Start by heading east of Dhofar to Ain Razat, a collection of natural springs, some of which are perennial. Following that, we will travel to Taqah, a coastal town in Dhofar Governorate. Taqah is an old town and fishing village with an interesting castle. After stopping at Taqah, we will drive to the most unexpected location in Dhofar, Wadi Darbat.

Continue to Mirbat, where you can see the historical Mirbat castle, the Wali house, the old Souq, the old village, and the mina (port/harbor). Continue to the twindomed Bin Ali's Tomb, a classic example of medieval architecture and a photo stop. Finally, go to Khor Rori Creek, which is the location of Sumhuran's ruined city. It is situated in the ancient city of Khor Rori, where the frankincense and copper trade flourished. End of the trip.

IMPORTANT REMARKS

- Oman is a Muslim country and the month of Ramadan is of major significance to its residents. During Ramadan, entertainment and alcohol will be restricted in most of the country. The sale of alcohol will be restricted in many places, although some establishments will offer alcohol for sale to tourists. During this period, local businesses may also have shorter opening hours.
- Please check which documents are required to enter the country.
- The order of the itinerary may be altered for logistical reasons, without prior notice, but no scheduled trips will be cancelled (except in the case that adverse weather conditions prevent its realization).
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Prices are calculated based on admission fees to the sights as of the date of publication. If there is an increase in these prices, you will be promptly informed.
- If you are a person with reduced mobility, please contact us to confirm the suitability of the trip.
